Umar Faruq Abd-Allah

Umar Faruq Abd-Allah is an American Muslim theologian, a writer, and a teacher. He completed his PhD on the origins of Islamic law from the University of Chicago, and he has published numerous scholarly articles and books in various languages, including, in Arabic, Al-Īmān fiṭrah: A Study of Primordial Faith in the Qur’an and Sunnah. He has taught courses in Arabic, Islamic studies, and comparative religions across the globe in North America, Africa, and Europe.